

This Board of Education has failed so completely at its job that we now face a special election to recall several of its members.

Families for San Francisco considers five principles in evaluating each removal:

- 1 - Performance: failure to perform the duties of the office to a minimum standard.
- 2 - Process: undemocratic processes while in office; blatant disregard of rules and procedures.
- 3 - Power: abuse of power and position to harass or diminish the voice of constituents.
- 4 - Interest: placing personal interest over the interests of the public and/or the institution that is overseen.
- 5 - Conduct: pattern of conduct that disrupts the proper functioning of the position, office, or agency.

Gabriela López has failed to perform to the minimum standards for a Board of Education President. She has repeatedly ignored prescribed legal processes while presiding over board meetings, which has resulted in the school district losing multiple lawsuits during her tenure. López was a champion for the school renaming project, instead of fighting to reopen schools during the pandemic.

President López also put her friendship with Collins over her duties as President of the Board. When Commissioner Collins' anti-Asian tweets came to light and she launched her frivolous $87 million lawsuit, López attended Collins' press conference event in solidarity: López literally stood with the person suing the district instead of the families the district serves.

Families for San Francisco recommends a vote to recall Commissioner Gabriela López.
